Asking and Receiving

Read Matthew 7:7-11

God is a giver: He gave us life, He gave us His Son, and He gives us His Spirit. God's intention is to bless us (Ephesians 2:7), to give Himself to us so that people will see Him in us.

Matthew 7:7-11 makes it clear that God is not reluctant to give to us, He is utterly unashamed in making massive promises to us about His generosity. Look at what Jesus says in Matthew 18:19, 21:21-22, John 14:12-14, 16:23 We are to respond to this with faith: actively believing the promises God has given, not passively waiting, but leaning in to what He says (Hebrews 11:1).

Sometimes there are delays but this is about God's wise fatherly timing, not the promises changing.

Promises have conditions which we need to fulfil:

1. Ask (John 16:24, James 4:2). We should actually pray!
2. Believe (Mark 6:5-6). Seek God with faith.
3. In His name (James 4:3, meaning His heart and will, we need to check our motives).
4. Receive (let God give you what He wants to, e.g. Matthew 7:8, Greek word "lambano" means to take/grasp).
